FLASH FLOODING

Intense rainfall makes water rise quickly and flow at a high speed for a short amount of time, often carrying away heavy objects.

Water falling on high ground flows downhill and river overflows

Flooding

River level rises rapidly, causing river to overflow its banks and inundate the flood plain