SURFACE (PLUVIAL) FLOODING

Paving prevents water draining into the ground

Drainage systems become overwhelmed

Flooding

Polluted water rises up through drains

In unpaved areas water can drain into the ground more easily

Periods of heavy rain overwhelm drainage systems and concreted surfaces, preventing water from draining away.