

UPGro is funded by:

Unlocking the Potential of Groundwater for the Poor

UPGro 2014 Consortium Grants Full Proposals
WORKSHOP
13th May 2014

The Cumberland Hotel, Great Cumberland Place, London, W1H 7DL

http://www.guoman.com/en/hotels/united_kingdom/london/the_cumberland/location/index.html

Aim: The aim of the workshop is to provide further details on the requirements and expectations of the UPGro programme; to provide an opportunity for those proceeding to the Full Proposal stage to raise any questions with the funder; and to meet the programme's Knowledge Broker.

Chair: Declan Conway, Grantham Research Institute on Climate Change and the Environment, LSE (UPGro Programme Executive Board Chair)

Agenda:

- 10.00 Arrival and registration, coffee and tea
- 10.30 Welcome and overview of the programme, scope of the call (Ruth Kelman, NERC – UPGro NERC programme manager)
- 10.50 DFID's requirements for the UPGro programme/projects (Gemma Tanner, DFID – UPGro DFID programme manager)
- 11.10 Question and answer session for funders on the scope of the programme (Ruth Kelman, NERC /Gemma Tanner, DFID/Craig Bardsley, ESRC – UPGro programme managers)
- 11.30 Welcome from the Knowledge Broker and introduction to the Knowledge Broker activity (Kerstin Danert, SKAT – UPGro Knowledge Broker)
- 12.00 Lunch (with coffee and tea)
- 13.00 The UPGro Groundwater Atlas (Alan MacDonald, BGS – UPGro Groundwater Atlas lead, Brigid Ó Dochartaigh, BGS – UPGro Groundwater Atlas)
- 13.30 Data management expectations for the UPGro programme/projects (Rod Bowie, National Geoscience Data Centre)
- 14.00 NERC application and assessment processes (Lizzie Garratt, NERC – UPGro NERC programme coordinator)
- 14.30 Coffee and tea
- 15.00 Extended informal one on one question and answer session
- 16.00 Close